

Nonprofit Management Section - Conference Activities

Thursday, October 20

10:45 am – 12:15 pm ~ Nonprofit Management Curriculum ~

Room: Andy Kirk A/B

This panel will present new ideas for curriculum content, assessment of the nonprofit management curriculum in relation to the new NASPAA standards, and integration of nonprofit management into MPA programs.

Mary Ann Feldheim, University of Central Florida, Convener

Angela M. Eikenberry, University of Nebraska at Omaha

"Teaching Nonprofit Management Competencies?"

Richard Crom, Staff Assistant to Director, EO Customer Education & Outreach, Internal Revenue Service

"Nonprofit Services from IRS"

Judith Sidel, University at Albany, SUNY & Steven Rathgeb Smith, Georgetown University

"Teaching Nonprofit Management in Schools of Public Affairs: An Empirical Analysis"

2:15 pm – 3:45 pm ~ Collaboration and Alliances in Nonprofit Education ~

Room: Jay McShann A

This panel will present a micro and macro perspective on collaborations and alliances in nonprofit management education. First, a micro alliance between an MPA program and School of Business will be presented followed by a macro discussion of opportunities for the professional organizations of ARNOA, NACC, and NASPAA to collaborate.

Mary Ann Feldheim, University of Central Florida, Convener

Ronald Fernandez & J. Patrick Murphy, DePaul University

"Opportunities for Collaboration - ARNOVA, NACC, and NASPAA"

Margaret Reid, University of Arkansas, Fayetteville

"Cross Sector Alliances"

4:00 pm -5:30 pm ~Teaching Board Governance ~

Room: Yardbird A

This panel will present a diverse array of approaches to teaching nonprofit board governance at graduate programs in three different university settings in three states.

David O. Renz, University of Missouri-Kansas City Convener

Kathleen M. Hale, Auburn University at Auburn

Renee A. Irvin, University of Oregon

Judith Millesen, Ohio University

Friday, October 21

8:00 am – 9:00 am – Nonprofit Management Section Meeting

Room: Mary Lou Williams A

NASPAA Nonprofit Management Section Meeting

- Update on Section Activities
- Recommended Mission-Specific Competencies in Nonprofit Management
- Website Development and Content
- Membership Election - New Officers Installed
- Programs and Initiatives for Upcoming Year