

A NASPAA Annual Conference Special Opportunity

The Harry S. Truman Library and Museum Tour

Saturday, October 22, 2011 10:15am - 2:30pm $25

The University of Missouri, Columbia is hosting a tour of the Harry S. Truman Library and Museum in the President's hometown of Independence.

The tour will leave the Marriott Downtown lobby Saturday, Oct. 22, at 10:15 am and will return at approximately 2:30 pm.

The Truman School at the University of Missouri has organized an exciting and educational Saturday outing to the Truman Museum. The Truman Museum's two permanent exhibits chronicle the Missouriian's personal life and political career -- with exhibits depicting his most difficult decisions, such as those to use the atomic bomb and as the Cold War began. A special exhibition on "The President's Photographer" will have just opened the day before our visit. President Truman and his wife, Bess, are buried in the museum's courtyard.

The $25 cost covers admission to the Library, transportation, and lunch.

Please let us know no later than October 12 whether you are interested in the tour, at naspaa@naspaa.org. The tour may be cancelled without sufficient registration.

Don't let this opportunity pass you by. Sign up today!