

NASPAA Comprehensive Schools Section Meeting
Tuesday, October 13, 2020
4 pm eastern, 3 pm central, 2 pm mountain, 1 pm pacific
Meeting will run 90 minutes

Section Co-Chairs: John Bartle, University of Nebraska at Omaha and Roger Hartley, University of Baltimore

Business Items (30 minutes)

1. Section leadership: We have two co-chairs and rotate leadership every three years. Roger was elected last year. We need to elect a new co-chair this year to replace John Bartle.
2. Volcker Alliance (Sara Mogulescu): The Volcker Alliance will present on its ongoing partnerships with colleges/schools of public service and share progress on relevant initiatives. These include the Next Generation Service Partnership, Public Service Curriculum Project, and Public Service Education Accelerator. The Volcker Alliance will also share how schools can become involved in programs of interest.
3. Laurel McFarland (NASPAA)

Topics for discussion (60 minutes)

1. Aligning budgets with our missions. This is always an important topic in normal times, but it is particularly important in an era when many universities are facing fiscal challenges and shortfalls.

Trevor Brown, Ohio State University

2. Immediate post-election plans for communications and dialogue among our students, faculty, staff and community partners.

Laura Bloomberg, University of Minnesota

3. Adding equity and social justice in the curricula at the BA, MPA and PhD levels.

Charles Menifield, Rutgers University Newark

4. Antiracism for NASPAA and NASPAA schools.

Susan Gooden, Virginia Commonwealth University
