Network of Schools of Public Policy, Affairs, and Administration

ACCREDITATION STANDARDS For Master's degree programs

Adopted October 16, 2009 at the NASPAA Annual Business meeting in Arlington, VA

Amended November 6, 2014 at the NASPAA Annual Business meeting in Albuquerque, NM

Amended: TBD October 2019

Preconditions for Accreditation Review

A program applying for accreditation review must demonstrate in ~~their~~ its Self-Study Reports that ~~they~~ it meets four preconditions. Because NASPAA wants to promote innovation and experimentation in education for public ~~service~~ affairs, administration, and policy, a program that does not meet the preconditions in a strictly literal sense, but which meets the spirit of these provisions, may petition for special consideration. Such petitions and Self-Study Reports must provide evidence that the program meets the spirit of the preconditions.

1. Program Eligibility

Because an accreditation review is a program evaluation, eligibility establishes that the program is qualified for and capable of being evaluated. The institution offering the program should be accredited (or similarly approved) by a recognized regional, national, or international agency. The primary objective of the program should be professional education. Finally, the program should have been operating and generating sufficient information about its operations and outcomes to support an evaluation.

2. Public Service Values

The mission, governance, and curriculum of an eligible program shall demonstrably emphasize public service values. ~~Public service~~ values are important and enduring beliefs, ideals and principles shared by members of a community about what is good and desirable and what is not. Public service values consist of the values that should guide public and nonprofit professionals. NASPAA's public service values are consistent with globally recognized sustainable development goals to build effective, accountable, and inclusive institutions at all levels. NASPAA's public service values ~~They~~ include, but are not limited to: pursuing the public interest with accountability and transparency; serving professionally with competence, efficiency, and objectivity; acting ethically so as to uphold the public trust; cultivating global, regional, and local awareness; and promoting participation and inclusiveness by demonstrating respect, equity, and fairness in dealings with members of society ~~citizens, stakeholders,~~ and fellow public servants. NASPAA expects an accreditable program to define the boundaries of the public service values it emphasizes, be they procedural or substantive, as the basis for distinguishing itself from other professional degree programs.

3. Primary Focus

The degree program's primary focus shall be that of preparing students to be leaders, managers, and analysts in public service, specifically the professions of public and nonprofit affairs, public administration, and public policy and only master's degree programs engaged in educating and training professionals for the aforementioned professions are eligible for accreditation. Variations in nomenclature regarding degree title are typical in the field of public service education. Related degrees in policy and management are eligible to apply, provided they can meet the accreditation standards, including advancing public service values and competencies. Specifically excluded are programs with a primary mission other than that of educating professionals in public and nonprofit affairs, administration, and policy (for example, programs in which public and nonprofit affairs, administration, and policy are majors or specializations available to students pursuing a degree in a related field).

4 Course of Study

Students should interact and collaborate extensively with faculty and each other, engage in hands on collaborative work, be socialized into the ~~norms~~ public service values and aspirations of the profession, and be able to develop their interpersonal and communication skills through ample faculty observation and feedback. The normal expectation ~~for students studying for is that~~ professional degrees in public service ~~affairs, administration, and policy is equivalent to require at least~~ 36 ~~to 48~~-semester credit hours of study, or the equivalent. ~~The intentions of this precondition are to ensure significant interaction with other students and with faculty, hands on collaborative work, socialization into the norms and aspirations of the profession, and observations by faculty of students' interpersonal and communication skills.~~ Programs departing from campus- centered education by offering distance learning, international exchanges, or innovative delivery systems must demonstrate that the intentions of this precondition are being achieved and that such programs are under the supervision of fully qualified faculty. This determination may include, but is not limited to, evidence of faculty of record, and communications between faculty and students.

Special Condition: Fast-tracking Programs that combine undergraduate education with a graduate degree in public service ~~affairs, administration, and policy~~ in a total of less than six academic years or the equivalent are not precluded from accreditation so long as they meet the criteria of an accredited graduate degree.

Special Condition: Dual Degrees Programs may allow a degree in public service ~~affairs, administration, and policy~~ to be earned simultaneously with a degree in another field in less time than required to earn each degree separately. All criteria of an accredited, professional, graduate degree in public service ~~affairs, administration, and policy~~ must be met and the electives allowed to satisfy requirements for the other degree must be appropriate as electives for a degree in public ~~service~~affairs, administration, and policy.

Special Condition: Executive Education Programs may offer a degree in public ~~service~~affairs, administration, and policy designed especially for college graduates who have had at least five years of cumulative experience in public service, including at least three years at the middle-to-upper level. The degree program must demonstrate that its graduates have emerged with the universal competencies expected of a NASPAA-accredited program, as well as with the competencies distinctive to executive education.
